Thought for the Week – from Caroline

My Top Ten Guide to using Facebook in a way that honours God, by Martin Miles

1) Think twice before "Defriending"

We are called to suffer long, forgive our enemies and reach the world.

2) Don't use social media to criticize or complain

Remember, windows and volcanoes vent, Christians use self-control.

3) Private message not public posting

Consider first, is a public wall the best place for this post?

4) Be careful what you "Like", what you re-post or forward

What Would Jesus Like? Think twice before forwarding.

5) No sexy stuff

Purity, purity, purity.

6) What cost a joke?

Will it offend, will it hurt will it embarrass?

7) No "mumbo-jumbo", superstition, manipulation stuff

Chain letters, "pyramids" and emotional manipulations are not godly.

8) Don't over-share

90% of adults in the US regret something they have posted.

9) Don't waste too much time

God requires productivity from us all.

10) Use social media well

The world is at our fingertips, encourage the believer, share the gospel, tell your story.
