The Fellowship is solely dependent on your offerings to function and we thank everyone who gives regularly or occasionally. There is a box for offerings on the table by the main entrance and we pass an offering bag round once a month. Please speak to Kevin if you would like to give by Standing Order or would like a Gift Aid declaration – if you pay tax, the value of all your gifts is then increased by 25%. Standing Order and Gift Aid forms are also available on the tables.

Thought for the Week – from Caroline

WORDS ARE IMPORTANT

You may be praying for one thing and then speaking against it. You may be praying for restoration in your marriage, yet you constantly criticise, beat down and speak negatively about your marriage on the other hand. You are releasing a negative spiritual force – death – that will counter what you're praying for. Even though God wants to move on your behalf and restore, you're releasing a contrary spiritual force with those negative words.

You need to be careful how you speak about your children. It's not wrong to state a fact. If somebody asks, don't say, "Everything is perfect" when it isn't. You can say, "There are problems but..." and then counter it with what you're believing for. It's okay to say, "Here's the problem, but everything will work out." On the other hand, if you say, "I'm believing God for a miracle, but..." and then you start examining and explaining all the bad things, you've just destroyed what you're trying to accomplish. It really does matter where you put your but.

Sometimes you just have to acknowledge the facts. "Hey, I've got a problem. I'm fighting sickness..." But then you counter it with the truth of God's word. "But I believe I'm healed, in Jesus' name."

From The Believers Authority by Andrew Wommack.

Caroline: I know it sometimes feels that it's denial or unrealistic when you are obviously sick and then you say, "I believe I am healed in Jesus' name," but it is scriptural and a statement of faith and will have infinitely more power than sinking into negative acceptance of doom and gloom. We must be real but have faith at the same time.
