Thought For The Week – from Caroline

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord and He will lift you up.

I remember years ago listening to a Joyce Meyer sermon and she said every time she preached about pride nobody bought the tapes because they didn't reckon they had a pride problem. Most of us have a pride hang-up of some sort. Here is a list of 15 signs of pride in your life:

1. Assuming you already know something when someone is teaching
2. Seeing yourself as too good to perform certain tasks
3. Being too proud to ask for help

4. Feeling the need to constantly teach people things
5. Talking about yourself a lot
6. Thinking you are better than others who are different or less fortunate
7. Disregarding the advice of others
8. Being constantly critical
9. Constantly needing attention and affirmation
10. Being unable to receive constructive criticism
11. Being overly obsessed with physical appearance
12. Unwilling to submit to authority
13. Ignoring people's attempt to communicate with you
14. Justifying our sin instead of admitting it
15. Name-dropping
